Conditions of Sale

This pup is sold as a pet. Purchase price is $ _____ and agreement as noted below:

Agreement of Sale

This pup is guaranteed against any congenital or hereditary defects that would prevent it from living a normal life. Written proof from a Veterinarian of such defects must be presented (and may be verified by the seller’s Veterinarian). Should any such defect become evident within the first year after purchase the puppy will be replaced with a comparable pup at the earliest possible time. No cash refund or other compensation for expense will be given. This pup has been inspected by the seller’s Veterinarian and is certified healthy at the time of sale.

This puppy is sold on a non-breeding contract registered with the Canadian Kennel Club and as such cannot be bred while this contract is in effect. It shall be noted this non-breeding contract cannot be lifted without the breeder/seller’s signature on the “Consent to Cancellation” form supplied by the Canadian Kennel Club. If a purchaser ignores the non-breeding agreement and permits this pup to reproduce without permission the purchaser will be deemed in violation of this agreement.

The purchaser agrees to take the responsibility for proper care of said animal as outlined in the guide “Your Puppy”, given to each new owner, and take the pup to his/her Veterinarian for regular health checks and inoculations. The purchaser shall keep this animal in conformity with local municipal by-laws, and assume full responsibility for the actions of said animal.

If for any reason this animal cannot be kept by the purchaser, the breeder/seller must be informed and the pup returned to the breeder/seller.

The purchaser agrees that the seller may claim and repossess the dog if conditions and agreements of sale are not met. The buyer further agrees to notify the seller of change of address. Loss of this animal by any cause whatsoever shall not release the purchaser from paying any moneys owing.
